

Branch Chain Logic Table

Logic Branch	IF (Condition / Trigger)	THEN (Action / Next Step)	Additional Context / Notes
Processing Style: Activist	Client exhibits impulsive decision-making ("I like it, I want it now").	Explain the clear sequence of ACTION and detail the immediate steps required to purchase.	Honey & Mumford Processing Styles.
Processing Style: Pragmatist	Client is emotive but seeks proof, validation, and reassurance.	Provide hard data, statistical evidence, customer testimonials, and case study examples.	Honey & Mumford Processing Styles.
Processing Style: Reflector	Client feels emotionally disturbed by decision-making and requires time to process.	Slow down the sales pace; allow client to withdraw and work through the process independently.	Honey & Mumford Processing Styles.
Processing Style: Theorist	Client desires active contribution and wants to voice ideas on solution design.	Invite client input on delivery/installation while setting clear non-variance boundaries.	Honey & Mumford Processing Styles.

Objection: Cost	Client states "It costs too much" (Root cause: lacks perceived value or price shock).	Calculate financial loss/gain over time, illustrate feature/benefit trade-offs, and prove social status/prestige.	Flushing Out Real Concerns.
Objection: Logic/Belief	Client states "It won't work" (Root cause: disagrees with reasoning or lacks belief).	Trial close logic as revealed; present social proof from industry leaders, data, and referrals.	Flushing Out Real Concerns.
Objection: Relevance	Client states "It won't work for me" (Root cause: perceives unique personal/business circumstances).	Evaluate if circumstance variation negates the solution; share case studies of identical client profiles.	Flushing Out Real Concerns.
Objection: Timing	Client states "I can wait" (Root cause: low urgency / not sufficiently disturbed by current problem).	Demonstrate logical timeline between offer and end benefits; calculate monetary/stress cost of delay.	Flushing Out Real Concerns.
Objection: Effort/Risk	Client states "It's too hard" (Root cause: perceives high risk or overwhelming effort).	Frame current state as a 'burning platform' (Hindenburg); provide simplified sequence flowcharts.	Flushing Out Real Concerns.

Sales Distribution: Commission Only	Business owner seeks to minimize fixed overheads and scale sales team size rapidly.	Adopt Commission-Only sales team; implement structured coaching to retain control over tactics.	Cons: higher member churn, potential cut-throat culture.
Sales Distribution: Salaried	Business owner requires high control over sales activity and customer experience consistency.	Adopt Salaried sales team; set minimum activity levels and conduct regular training sessions.	Cons: increased fixed costs, exposed to economic volatility.
Sales Distribution: Licensed Distributor	Business owner wants to scale globally without incurring direct recruitment/training costs.	Engage Independent Licensed Distributors; leverage their established business infrastructure.	Cons: harder to track inputs, competing for 'sales share'.
Pricing Strategy: Value Based	Business owner aims to maximize profit-per-engagement and flush out client expectations.	Conduct thorough scoping, establish market awareness of points of differentiation, and negotiate firmly.	Requires willingness to let some prospects walk away.
